

How does his future stack up?

Very shiny! He has an insured savings account at Beverly Hills Federal Savings. It was a present from a relative. But he and Beverly Hills Federal keep it stacking up. He adds to it regularly and a high dividend of 5% (current annual rate) compounded daily keeps it going higher. 5.13% is the actual rate when funds remain a year.

What better way to start a child on a permanent savings program than by opening an account for him or encouraging him to start one. $1 is all it takes—and, of course, funds are insured to $15,000 by a permanent agency of the Federal Government. Any adult may open a savings account under The Uniform Gifts to Minors Act for the benefit of any minor regardless of relationship.

ALBERT SALCIDO
Battalion Chief

JOHN AGAPITO
Training Officer

JACK GARLAND
Now Captain

... Fire

A.A. degree in mechanical engineering. He worked briefly as a precision grinder, but joined the Torrance Fire Department in Aug., 1949. He was promoted to battalion chief in 1963.

RICHARD NANNEY
New Engineer

When off duty, Agapito is active in Pop Warner and Babe Ruth. He is an avid outdoorsman, enjoying hunting, camping, and waterskiing with his wife, Carlotta and children, Debra, 17, and Vince, 15.

NEWLY APPOINTED Captain Garland hails from St. Paul, Minn., where he was born Dec. 5, 1932. Practically a native Californian, Garland has lived in this state since 1936, coming to Torrance in 1939.

A football enthusiast at Torrance High, Garland dropped out of school to enter the Armed Forces. He received his diploma while in the Army.

While serving his country, Garland was a staff sergeant in the medical corps. He served in Korea for 18 months.

Garland's first job was with Union Oil, leaving the company to join the fire service in 1956. He was a fire engineer before his recent promotion.

Garland enjoys working with young people and has been an assistant coach in Pop Warner Football. He was formerly interested in barber shop quartet singing.

NANNEY, newly appointed engineer for the Torrance Fire Department, was born in Memphis, Tenn., in 1939. A graduate of Torrance High School, Nanney has lived here since 1946. He also attended El Camino College for two years.

Nanney entered fire service in June, 1961, but was drafted shortly thereafter. For two years, he was stationed in Korea with the engineer corps.

Outside of firefighting, Nanney has volunteered as a first aid instructor. His hobbies include photography and skin diving.

Nanney and his wife, Gloria have a 4-year-old son.

COUNT MARCO

Which Uniform Should You Wear

The only stronghold of femininity left in this country is your housewives. Long may your skirts wave in the breeze.

Of course, I'm not talking about you who cling to your capris, pedal pushers, and jeans 24 hours of each day—most of you look as though you never get out of them even to bathe or sleep. You are the ones who look as though you had succumbed to the urge to be uniform in a uniform because you are afraid to be individual.

I wonder what ever happened to the dignity and status of the frilly dress and apron worn by your grandmother. And the lacy dust cap that kept her coiffure clean and in order while she worked around her home?

The only place I see those charming new caps now are stretched over a pile of plastic hardware covering your heads, supposedly to make you presentable for some far-off evening when you might have the opportunity to be taken out by your husbands. One look at that mess is enough to make most husbands take off for the evening with the boys (or with the girls who really look like girls).

The only uniform a wife once needed was a neat home, a loving husband, and a dot-cappis family. Her reward was not a military medal; it was the serenity of knowing her place in the world. And it showed in her eyes. No piece of cloth or bit of metal, no matter how prestigious, can match that look.

Besides, there are far too many women officially in uniform already. Women in blue on motorcycles, with their chalk on a stick, marking the tires of automobiles or writing out tickets.

Those Army women may occasionally look smart, neat and trim in their unimaginative uniforms, but to me they usually have the appearance of an Army tank after a long night patrolling the lime pits. And the Navy bunch wear hats that look like upended canoes with slit bottoms!

And titles! What woman who is really feminine would prefer "Captain" to "Mother" titles worth fighting for.

Investment Lectures Scheduled

Investment fundamentals will be the subject of two four-week lecture courses to be presented Tuesdays in the Torrance area by Dean Witter & Co., beginning next week. The lectures, held at 7:30 p.m., will be offered in the Terrace Room of the Broadway Del Amo and at Hawthorne Savings & Loan Association, 21370 Hawthorne Blvd.

Account executives with the brokerage firm will conduct the free lectures, which are designed for the beginning investor.

Armed Bandit Robs Theater, Takes $1,200

An armed bandit wearing sunglasses and a parka held up the Rolling Hills Theater about 10:15 p. m. Monday, escaping with $1,200.

The suspect, described as a white male in his 30s, made his way to an upstairs office. He then forced the manager to turn over the day's receipts.

Anniversary Tea

Mount St. Mary's Alumnae will hold its 10th anniversary tea from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 14, in the campus center at the Brentwood campus.
